| A world with sufficiently skilled personnel implementing effective humanitarian response and sustainable development programmes. | IPHDC exists to enable development and humanitarian actors to enhance their performance in relation to their vision, mission, objectives and context. | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To improve the quality of development programmes and humanitarian responses by building capacities of key stakeholders. 2. To strengthen information sharing and learning among development and humanitarian actors on key research findings, emerging trends and best practices. |

Our envisioned achievements

By 2024 we will have,

- 1 Supported at least 500 organizations around the world, 70% of which will be national organizations, through provision of appropriate capacity building services to improve their work.
- 2 Built the capacity of at least 10,000 individuals involved in development and humanitarian interventions, 80% of whom will be nationals of developing and disaster-affected countries.
- 3 Established and sustained strong working partnerships with humanitarian and development organizations together with key learning institutions.
- 4 Established sustainable hubs in key geographical locations supporting local capacity building.
